

Invitation

International Conference Guide My W@y A European Career Guidance Concept for International Youth Mobility

Location: University of Applied Labour Studies (HdBA)
Seckenheimer Landstraße 16,
68163 Mannheim

We are pleased to invite you to the international conference of the ERASMUS+ Project „Guide My W@y – A European Career Guidance Concept on International Youth Mobility” on 7th July 2016 at the University of Applied Labour Studies in Mannheim, Germany.

The project aims to support career counsellors (EURES, national, regional and local) in terms of advice towards the international mobility of young people and young professionals. At the heart of the project is the development of a European Career Guidance Concept for international youth mobility as well as the provision of online materials and tools.

The objective of the international conference is to share the project's milestones which are:

- A European Career Guidance Concept for International Youth Mobility
- Interactive eLearning Internet Portal
- Virtual Counselling

In addition, project partners and EURES counsellors will share good practices and their experiences within the project and with the development of an advanced training through virtual counselling. You will also be able to interact with our project team at the conference.

If you are a counsellor (EURES, Euroguidance, national, regional, local), from career offices, higher education institution, a policy maker, or interested in the project, you are more than welcome to join us. For your information we have attached the agenda to this invitation. We would like to point out that there will be no registration fee for this conference.

Should you have any questions, please do feel free to contact us via email: Alexandra-Elena.luga@arbeitsagentur.de or by calling us: +49 621 4209 249. Within the email attachment you will find a registration form, which you can send to us via email to the following email address: Alexandra-Elena.luga@arbeitsagentur.de.

We look forward to seeing you in July.
